ARTICLE 2: Use.

The premises are hereby leased for use as a restaurant and for no other purpose.

ARTICLE 3: Term.

The premises are hereby leased to Tenant to have and to hold for a term commencing on September 16, 2024 (the "Commencement Date") and continuing for five (5) years, unless the term shall be terminated earlier or extended, as provided in this lease.

ARTICLE 4: Delivery of Possession.

(a) Following delivery of the premises to Tenant, or earlier if permitted by Landlord, Tenant shall be permitted to enter into the premises and to perform, at its expense, all work necessary or desirable for its intended business operations, and to equip the premises with such trade fixtures and personal property necessary or desirable for such purposes. All such work by Tenant shall be done in a good and first-class workmanlike manner and in accordance with all applicable laws, ordinances and building codes.

(b) Tenant is also responsible for conducting and paying for all other work and improvements to the building or premises needed to modify or accommodate the building or premises for its use.

ARTICLE 5: Rent.

Throughout the term hereof, Tenant covenants and agrees to pay to Landlord, at the address specified on page 1 hereof, a fixed annual rent for the premises as included in Attachment B, attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, and as follows:

The first month's rent is required for the delivery of possession on or after Month Day, 2024 and shall be in the amount of Four Thousand Three Hundred Dollars and No Cents ($4,300.00). For the next 90 days (or 3 months) of the term hereof there shall be no rent. Beginning on December 1, 2024, and for eight (8) months thereafter, the Rent shall be payable in equal monthly installments at the rate of Four Thousand Three Hundred Dollars and No Cents ($4,300.00) per month. For the second year, and each year thereafter the annual and monthly rent shall be increased at a rate of Three Percent (3%) per year.

Each of said monthly installments of rent shall be payable on the first day of each and every calendar month, in advance, during the term hereof, the first such payment to be due on the Commencement Date, subject to exception(s) outlined in this Section. In the event of a partial calendar month, the fixed monthly rent for that month shall be prorated based upon the ratio of days in such partial month to the total number of days in that month.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, it is expressly understood that Landlord shall not be construed or held to be a partner or associate of Tenant in the conduct of its business, the relationship between the parties hereto being at all times that of landlord and tenant.

ARTICLE 6: Late Fee.

In addition to any other remedy provided by this Agreement or law, if the Tenant shall fail to pay Rent within 15 days of its due date, Landlord may impose a Late Fee in the amount of One Hundred Fifty Dollars and No Cents ($150.00).

ARTICLE 7: Repairs.

(a) Landlord agrees, at Landlord's own cost and expense, to maintain the building in good order, condition and state of repair, and to make the following repairs relating to the premises:

- (i) all structural repairs;
- (ii) all repairs to and replacements of the roof and under flooring;
- (iii) all repairs to the exterior of the premises and the building, including sidewalks adjoining same;
- (iv) all repairs and replacements to utilities systems and sewer lines;
- (v) all repairs to any fire sprinkling main and system servicing the premises, except the fire suppression system installed on the premises, which Tenant shall be responsible for maintaining and shall provide evidence satisfactory to Landlord demonstrating that such system is in good working order on an annual basis;
- (vi) all repairs to the interior of the premises if the need therefore arose as a result of Landlord's act or failure to act; and
- (vii) all repairs to the restrooms and the hallway in the rear of the premises.

The Landlord shall not be responsible or liable to the Tenant for any loss or damage resulting to the Tenant's property or to the Tenant from bursting, stoppage or leaking of water, gas, sewer, sprinkler or steam pipes. Nor shall the landlord be responsible for any repairs made necessary by the acts of the Tenant, its employees or invitees.

Except as herein above provided, Tenant shall take good care of the premises, shall replace broken glass in windows and doors and shall do the work required to maintain the premises, the storefront and the fixtures and equipment therein, including the plumbing and electrical systems located in and serving the premises, in good working order. Tenant shall inspect and clean the kitchen exhaust equipment at least once each quarter and provide the Landlord copies of all NFPA reports. Tenant agrees to repair all damages caused by Tenant or its invitees. Tenant further agrees to maintain and repair the heating, ventilating and air-conditioning system ("HVAC System") located in and servicing the premises, except that Landlord shall, when necessary, at its own cost and expense, replace the major components of such HVAC System, including the unit itself, the compressor and the fan motor.

(b) If Landlord fails to make any of the repairs or to timely perform any of the other obligations required of Landlord under this lease within thirty (30) days after written notice from Tenant of the necessity therefore, Tenant, in addition to any other rights or remedies available to it hereunder, at law or in equity, shall have the right, but not the obligation, after notice and consultation with Landlord to make said repairs or to perform such obligations on behalf of Landlord and to deduct the entire cost thereof from rent due or to become due hereunder. If, in an emergency, any such repairs are immediately necessary for the proper use, enjoyment or preservation of the premises, no prior thirty (30) days' notice shall be required but Tenant shall give Landlord whatever notice is reasonable in the circumstances and may forthwith make said repairs on behalf of Landlord and deduct the entire cost thereof from rent due or to become due hereunder.

At the end, expiration or other termination of the term hereby granted, Tenant shall deliver up the premises in good order and condition, reasonable wear and tear and damage by casualty, fire, condemnation, the elements or Landlord excepted. Tenant shall repair any damages to the Premises or Building caused by Tenant, its employees, agents or invitees.

(c) In order to secure Tenant's obligations under the terms of this Agreement, Tenant shall upon the execution of this lease deposit with Landlord the sum of Four Thousand, Three Hundred Dollars and No Cents ($4,300.00) as security deposit. Upon termination of this lease the Landlord shall return such deposit to the Tenant less (1) any amounts expended to repair or clean the premises, (2) any unpaid rentals or late payment fees then due, and (3) the cost of performing any obligations imposed upon Tenant by this lease. The existence of this security deposit shall not excuse the payment of any monthly rental amount and, in particular, shall not excuse the payment of the last month's rent due under this lease agreement.

ARTICLE 8: Compliance With Public Authorities.

Tenant shall during the term hereby granted comply with all statutes, ordinances, rules, orders, regulations or requirements of the federal, state and local governments which must be complied with by reason of the nature of the use of the premises by Tenant, and shall also comply with and execute all rules, orders and regulations issued or made by the Board of Fire Underwriters for the prevention of fires, which must be complied with by reason of the nature of the use of the premises by the Tenant. In no event, however, shall Tenant be required to make structural repairs or to remove any asbestos-containing material or other hazardous substance existing at the premises, it being understood and agreed all such work shall be Landlord's responsibility at its own expense if the same shall be necessary to comply with the aforesaid statutes, ordinances, rules, orders, regulations or requirements.

ARTICLE 9: Increase in Insurance.

Tenant shall not use or occupy the premises or permit the same to be used or occupied for any business or purpose deemed hazardous on account of fire or otherwise, and, if by reason of the hazardous use and occupancy of the premises hereunder the rate of fire insurance on the building in which the premises are located shall be increased, Tenant will, on demand, pay to Landlord the amount of such increase. Landlord, prior to making any demand therefore, shall give Tenant ten (10) days' written notice of any such future increased insurance premiums and an opportunity to cure the condition which caused such increase. Landlord covenants that Landlord will not permit any space in the building to be used or occupied for any purpose deemed hazardous on account of fire or otherwise so as to cause an increase in the rate of fire insurance applicable to the premises, and that if by reason of such use of occupancy of any such space, the rate of fire insurance on any of the contents of the premises shall be increased, Landlord will, on demand, pay to Tenant the amount of such increase.

ARTICLE 10: Access to Premises.

Landlord, its duly authorized agents and representatives, shall have the right, following reasonable prior notice to Tenant (except in the case of an emergency), to enter into and upon the premises during Tenant's business hours for the purpose of examining the same or making such repairs therein as may be necessary for the safety and preservation thereof.

Landlord shall have the right, following reasonable notice to Tenant, during Tenant's business hours, during the three (3) months next preceding the expiration of the term hereby granted and during Tenant's business hours, to show the premises to persons wishing to rent the premises.

Landlord agrees that any entry by it into the premises shall be done in such a manner so as not to unreasonably interfere with the conduct of normal business operations therein. Landlord shall exert its best efforts to perform any and all work expeditiously and agrees to keep all interruptions to Tenant's business to a minimum. If as a result of any entry by Landlord into the premises it is necessary to Tenant to suspend business operations therein, then rent shall abate for the period of time normal business operations are suspended.

ARTICLE 11: Alterations, Signs and Awnings.

(a) Tenant shall not make any structural alterations or improvements to the premises or any alterations or improvements to the central building systems or to the life or safety systems (including the sprinkler system) of the building without in each instance obtaining the written consent of the Landlord, which consent Landlord covenants and agrees not to unreasonably withhold. Tenant shall have the right, however, without the necessity of obtaining Landlord's consent, to make nonstructural alterations and improvements to the premises.

(b) All alterations, additions and improvements made by Tenant upon the premises shall remain upon the premises at the termination of this lease, except that any trade fixtures, furniture, equipment, signs and personal property installed by Tenant in the premises during the term hereof may be removed by Tenant from the premises at Tenant's cost and expense. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that a Default is declared under the terms of this Agreement and the Landlord takes possession of the premises pursuant to Article 20, any trade fixtures, the removal of which would cause substantial damage to the premises, shall become the property of the Landlord.

(c) Only after written design approval by Landlord, Tenant shall have the right, at all times and from time to time, at its own expense, to install and maintain, replace and relocate on the building adjacent to that part of the building housing the premises its standard identifying signs, awnings, and lighting effects as are or may be, from time to time, used or adopted by Tenant. Landlord's approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Landlord shall attempt to decide a request within ten (10) days. Tenant shall also have the right to place Tenant's standard professionally made signs in its windows in accordance with Tenant's regular advertising and promotional programs. Tenant may install and maintain signs on other portions of the adjacent building, but only upon written approval of Landlord.

(d) Tenant shall not modify the facade of the building.

(e) In each and every case, however, Tenant, in exercising its rights under this Article 11, shall do all work at its own cost and expense and in full accordance with all rules and regulations of any governmental authority having jurisdiction and shall save Landlord harmless on account of filing of mechanics' liens or for any other cause arising from Tenant's making of such alterations or installations.

ARTICLE 12: Utilities.

Tenant shall arrange and pay for all utilities consumed or used by it at the premises during the term of this lease. A separate meter is provided for all utilities serving the premises.

ARTICLE 13: Real and Personal Property Taxes.

Commencing with the Commencement Date, Tenant agrees to pay all personal property taxes and assessments levied against the premises or any part thereof and all property on the premises for and payable during each tax fiscal year thereafter occurring during the term of this lease.

ARTICLE 14: Common Area.

Landlord agrees throughout the term of this lease to properly maintain and operate all common areas and facilities or appurtenances to the building (collectively, the "common areas") and to keep same in good order and condition and properly lighted and cleaned. The Tenant shall have the obligation to remove or contract for prompt removal of snow and ice from the sidewalk adjacent to that part of the building housing the premises and to contract for regular trash removal from a designated dumpster.

ARTICLE 15: Insurance.

(a) Landlord represents that it is currently carrying and that throughout the term of this lease, Landlord shall carry fire and extended coverage insurance in so-called "all risk" form upon the building and improvements thereof. Such coverage shall include damage by fire and other casualty typically covered under an "all risk" policy in the vicinity of the building, but in all events to include coverage for collapse, vandalism, water damage and sprinkler leakage, comprehensive boiler and machinery insurance and flood and earthquake insurance. Landlord's insurance shall be in amounts sufficient to prevent Landlord from becoming a co-insurer within the terms of the applicable policies and in an amount equal to the actual replacement cost of the building and improvements thereof, including the value of all additions, alterations, replacements and repairs thereto, by whomever made, as well as the machinery, equipment and their systems forming a part thereof ("replacement cost"). It is understood that the replacement cost is$

(b) Tenant agrees to keep the premises insured under its general liability policy, and fire legal liability policy, each with single policy limits of not less than $1,000,000.00 for personal injuries and $250,000.00 for property damage, and shall deliver to Landlord a certificate of such insurance naming the City of Traverse City as "additional insured." If Tenant serves alcoholic beverages or allows them to be consumed on the premises, Tenant shall obtain liquor liability insurance having the same limits as its liability insurance and naming the City of Traverse City as "additional insured."

ARTICLE 16: Fire & Casualty Damage.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (c) hereof, if during the term hereof the premises or the building shall be damaged in whole or in part by fire or other casualty, Landlord shall, proceeding with all reasonable diligence and at its expense, repair the damage and restore the premises and the building to the same condition as existed immediately prior to such damage. However, the Landlord's obligation to repair the premises shall be limited to the amount of insurance proceeds actually received by the Landlord.

(b) Tenant shall be entitled to an abatement of all rent and charges to the extent and for the period during which the premises are untenable or incapable of Tenant's normal use, such abatement to continue until the first to occur of (i) the date Tenant re-opens in the premises for its normal business, or (ii) one hundred twenty (120) days following the date on which Landlord completes its repair and restoration pursuant to paragraph (a) above. It is further agreed that the term of this lease shall, at Tenant's option, be extended by the same number of days as normal business shall not have been conducted in the premises due to the damage or destruction.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the premises or the building shall be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty during the last year of the term of this lease and the damage is of such a nature that it cannot be restored with the exercise of due diligence within ninety (90) days following the date on which restoration work is begun, then either Landlord or Tenant may terminate this lease by notice given to the other within forty five (45) days after the date of the damage. If, however, Landlord shall so terminate and at such time Tenant shall have the right to renew the term of this lease, then Tenant, within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice of termination from Landlord, may advise Landlord, in writing, of its election to exercise its next available renewal option, in which event Landlord's purported termination shall be deemed a nullity and Landlord shall repair the damage as provided in this Article.

(d) If this lease shall be terminated as aforesaid, then this lease shall terminate and come to an end as of the date of the damage giving rise to such termination with the same force and effect in all respects as if such termination was the expiration date set forth herein, and rent and other charges payable hereunder shall be apportioned and paid up to the date of said damage and any prepaid unearned rent and other charges payable hereunder shall forthwith be repaid by Landlord to Tenant.

(e) If Landlord shall fail to commence to repair or restore the premises or the building as specified in this Article within ninety (90) days after the damage has occurred, and to proceed thereafter to complete such repairs and restoration with due diligence, then and in such event, Tenant may give Landlord ten (10) days' prior written notice of its election either to (i) terminate this lease on the date specified in such notice, or (ii) rebuild the premises on behalf of Landlord, in which latter event Tenant shall have the right to deduct the entire cost of such reconstruction from rent due or to become due hereunder together with interest at the highest rate permitted by law.

If any portion of the building or its appurtenances other than the premises is damaged or destroyed to the extent that Tenant, exercising its reasonable judgment, cannot profitably operate its business on the premises, then Tenant has the right, at its option, (i) to close its business, in which event all rent and other charges payable by Tenant hereunder shall abate for such period of time as the premises remain closed, or (ii) to continue its business operations in the premises and pay to Landlord, a percentage of Basic Rent equal to the percentage of tenantable space that can be used plus all additional rent, taxes, utilities and other costs it is obligated to pay under this lease until such time as all such damage and destruction has been repaired and restored.

ARTICLE 17: Reserved.

ARTICLE 18: Reserved.

ARTICLE 19: Assignment/Subletting.

(a) Except as otherwise provided, Tenant shall not have the right to assign this lease, or to sublet or license the whole or any portion of the premises.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of this Lease, it is agreed that Tenant may assign this Lease or sublet the whole or any part of the Premises without prior Landlord approval to its Franchisor, parent corporation, or to any subsidiary of its parent corporation, or to any corporation now or hereafter affiliated with Tenant (including a subsidiary, affiliate or controlling corporation), or to any entity which may result from a merger or consolidation by or with Tenant, or to any corporation, entity or person(s) to which Tenant sells all or substantially all of its operating assets or who shall acquire all or any portion of Tenant's capital stock. Further, nothing in this Lease shall limit the issuance or sale of Tenant's capital stock in connection with a public offering. However, any such action shall not release or discharge Tenant from any of its obligations under this lease.

ARTICLE 20: Default.

It is covenanted and agreed that if (i) Tenant shall default in the payment of the rent or any item of Additional Rent, or any part of either, and such default shall continue for fifteen (15) days after written notice to Tenant, or (ii) Tenant shall default in fulfilling any of the other covenants of this lease and such default shall continue for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Landlord specifying such default, and such default shall thereafter continue beyond such period as is reasonably necessary to correct such default and Tenant is not diligently occupied in correcting the same, or (iii) the estate hereby created shall be taken on execution or by other process of law, or (iv) Tenant shall be judicially declared bankrupt or insolvent according to law, or (v) any assignment shall be made of the property of Tenant for the benefit of creditors, and if a receiver, guardian, conservator, trustee in voluntary bankruptcy or other similar officer shall be appointed to take charge of all or any substantial part of Tenant's property by a court of competent jurisdiction, or (vi) an involuntary petition shall be filed by the reorganization of Tenant under any provisions of the Bankruptcy Act now or hereafter enacted and such proceeding is not dismissed within ninety (90) days after it is begun, or (vii) Tenant shall file a petition for such reorganization, or for arrangements under any provisions of the Bankruptcy Act now or hereafter enacted and providing a plan for a debtor to settle, satisfy or extend the time for the payment of debts, then, in any of said events (notwithstanding any license of any former breach of covenant or waiver of the benefit hereof or consent in a former instance), Landlord lawfully may, immediately or at any time thereafter, upon prior written notice, enter into and upon the premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole, and repossess the same as its former estate, and expel Tenant, and those claiming through or under it, or its Estate, and remove its or their effects without prejudice to any remedies which might otherwise be used for arrears of rent or preceding breach of covenant. Upon entry as aforesaid the term of this lease shall terminate. Tenant covenants and agrees, notwithstanding any entry or re-entry by Landlord, whether by summary proceedings, termination or otherwise, to pay and be liable for on the days originally fixed herein for the payment thereof, amounts equal to the several instruments or rent and other charges reserved as they would, under the terms of this lease, become due if this lease had not been terminated, or if Landlord had not entered or re-entered, as aforesaid, and whether the premises be relet or remain vacant, in whole or in part, for the remainder of the term or for a period less than the remainder of the term; but if the premises be relet by Landlord, Tenant shall be entitled to a credit in the net amount of rent received by Landlord in reletting the premises, after deduction of all reasonable expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable brokerage fees, and the like), and in collecting the rent in connection therewith. In the event of termination by Landlord as aforesaid, Landlord agrees to use reasonable efforts to relet the premises so as to minimize the damages suffered by Landlord and payable by Tenant.

In the event that Landlord shall default in the performance of any of its obligations under this lease, which default materially and adversely affects Tenant's quiet enjoyment and/or use of the premises, and such default continues for a period of more than thirty (30) days after written notice from Tenant specifying such default (or if such default requires more than thirty (30) days to remedy, if it continues after such notice beyond the time reasonably necessary to cure) Tenant shall have the right, in addition to all other remedies available hereunder or available at law or in equity, to terminate this lease upon written notice to Landlord.

ARTICLE 21: Extension.

In the event Tenant wishes to extend this lease beyond the initial term, Tenant shall provide written notice to Landlord not less than one hundred eighty (180) days prior to the expiration of the initial term.

ARTICLE 22: Reserved

ARTICLE 23: Miscellaneous Provisions.

(a) Notices. Whenever by the terms of this lease any notice, request, demand or other communication shall or may be given, either to Landlord or to Tenant, the same must be in writing, and shall be sent by registered or certified mail (return receipt requested), postage prepaid, or shall be delivered by private overnight carrier or by messenger service as follows:

If to Landlord: addressed to Landlord at the address set forth on the first page of this lease (or to such address or addresses as may from time to time hereafter be designated by Landlord by like notice);

If to Tenant: addressed to Tenant at the address set forth on the first page of this lease (or to such other address or addresses as may from time to time hereafter be designated by Tenant by like notice).

Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all such notices shall be effective when actually received or refused by the party to whom it is addressed.

Further, if after using due diligence Tenant is unable within ninety (90) days from the date hereof to secure all necessary municipal approvals and/or building permits prerequisite to the construction and/or operation of its business in the premises, then Tenant shall have the right, within ten (10) days following said ninety (90) day period to terminate this lease without further obligation of any kind.

(c) Holdover. Any statute, law, custom or practice to the contrary notwithstanding, this lease and the term hereby granted shall in any event terminate, expire and come to an end on the date herein specified for the termination thereof, without notice of any kind from either party to the other. In the event Tenant holds over after said date except under a renewal of this lease as hereinafter provided, then and in such event Tenant shall be deemed a month to month Tenant and at one and a half (1.5) times the current monthly fixed rental and otherwise on the same terms as herein provided.

(d) Legal Costs. In the event of any suit, action or proceeding at law or in equity by either of the parties hereto against the other by reason of any matter or thing arising out of this lease, the prevailing party shall recover from the other its costs and expenses relating thereto including not only its legal costs but actual attorneys' fees for the maintenance or defense of said action, suit or proceeding. In addition, in the event that the Tenant defaults due to a condition described in Article 20 of this Agreement, any costs including utility fees, incurred by Landlord in these proceedings shall be receivable by the Landlord.

(e) No Waiver. A waiver by either party of any breach or failure by the other to perform any of the covenants, agreements or conditions of this lease shall not bar the enforcement of any other rights or remedies for any subsequent breach or failure of any of the same or other covenants, agreements or conditions.

Landlord and Tenant each represent and warrant that it has had no dealings or conversations with any real estate broker in connection with the negotiation and execution of this lease and Landlord and Tenant each agree to indemnify the other from and against all liabilities arising from any successful claim of any other real estate broker, including counsel fees, resulting from their respective acts.

Landlord and Tenant agree, on the written request of the other, to provide each other promptly, with a written statement certifying the status of the lease, the dates of commencement or expiration hereof, the rentals payable hereunder, the existence (if any) of any defaults hereunder and/or any other matter or thing reasonably requested with regard to this lease or the effectiveness hereof.

(h) Approvals. Whenever under this lease provision is made for Tenant to obtain the written consent or approval of Landlord, such consent or approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(i) Provisions Binding. Except as specifically stated herein, this lease and all of the terms and provisions hereof shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, representatives, successors and assigns. If more than one person or entity signs this Lease as Tenant, each is separately and jointly liable for all of the obligations in this Lease.

(j) Recording. This lease shall not be recorded.
