2026 RAINBOW RUN NARRATIVE

TART Trails & Up North Pride are coming together to host the annual Rainbow Run, a color fun run and fundraiser around the Boardman Lake Loop Trail. As a way to celebrate the trail systems and the Northern Michigan 2SLGBTQ+ Community during Pride Month, the event, on June 20, 2026, will invite the community to join together at Hull Park to enjoy music and refreshments before and after the run.

The run route will start and finish at Right Brain Brewery, taking participants counterclockwise around the Boardman Lake Loop Trail. 16th street will be closed between Cass St and the Railroad Tracks at Lake Dr. Barricades paired with vehicles will be located at either end of the street closure. Event set up begins at 6 am, registration is at 8 am, run/walk starts at 9 am, event finishes at noon, and clean up will be finished by 1 pm.

There will be five distinct and separated stations along the route for participants to receive their colors. All participants will pay a registration fee and will be clearly identified with a branded t-shirt. Similar to the Color Run, we will be using a powder made of colored cornstarch that will be human, fish, and environment-friendly and will come up after rain to have no long-lasting effects on the park or City infrastructure. There will be two color stations each located at the following locations: NMC University Center, Medalie Park, Lake Pointe Village, Center Place Crossing and 14th Street. All property owners have approved these locations.

Following the event, participants are invited to gather at Right Brain Brewery for music, refreshments, and community activities like lawn games and t-shirt decorating on the brewery patio. All of the events at Right Brain will be open to the public. Infrastructure for this event will include a 10x15 foot metal truss archway for runners to start and finish through located on the Boardman Lake Trail, yard-sign style directional signage on the trail, and up to (5) 10x10 foot booths for community organization tabling on the brewery patio. 40 parking spaces are available at Right Brain Brewery and additional parking will be available on city streets following posted rules.
